Amy's Place needs donations to help homeless Bellingham youth

GABRIELLE NOMURA - THE BELLINGHAM HERALD

BELLINGHAM - Amy's Place for Youth needs donations to keep running its program for homeless people 18 and younger.

Since Old Town Christian Ministries founded Amy's Place in 2006, 782 young people have used the center to receive food, clothing, counseling and have somewhere other than the streets to sleep. This year, 280 children and teens have received services and support, said program director Heidi Unick.

Tax-deductible donations can be made to: Old Town Christian Ministries, Amy's Place 2006 J St. Bellingham, WA 98225.

For more information, visit amysplaceforyouth.org or call 671-5567.
